

Glogster “Taking posters to the next level”

What: Glogster is a multimedia poster creating site. Depending on what level of membership you get, you can include: _____ →

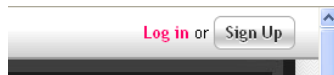

Why: Cleaner, more fun and more permanent than paper posters.

Options:

1. Free membership—Single license
 - a. No data attachment or drawing tool
 - b. Advertisements on the page
2. Teacher light--
 - a. 50 student accounts
 - b. Adds the data attachment and drawing tool
 - c. No advertisements
 - d. $29.95 per year
3. Teacher premium $99 per year for 200 students and School premium is $2 per student per year for unlimited students (adds more features with school level administration and student sharing)

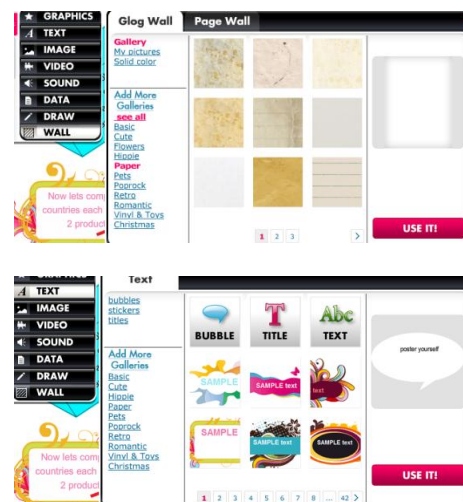

How: Creating Your Teacher Account

1. Go to edu.glogster.com
2. Click Sign up
3. Choose Single free version to get started to see how you like Glogster
4. Fill out registration form

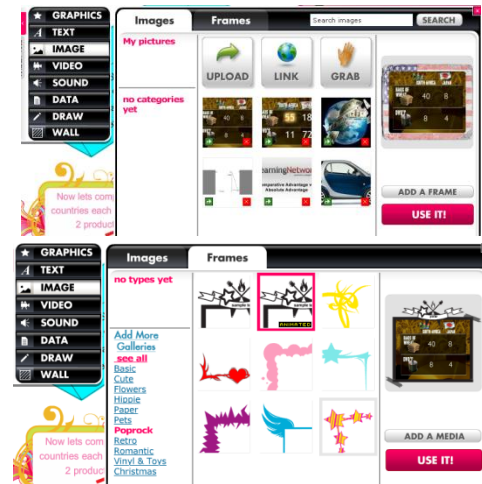

Creating Your Glog:

1. Click on Create new glog
2. Start designing
 - a. Wall will change the background
 - b. Choose your titles/text, graphics and click on Use it (sends the item to the poster)
 - c. Close out of that options window to edit the item
 - d. Click on the item added and then edit (color, font size, add links, etc)
 - e. Click OK

- f. For images, video and sound, you can upload those from your own files
 - i. Add frames around the image

- g. Preview the glogster to see what students will see
- h. Save or Publish (when done)
- i. Give a name to the glog and the web address location

- j. Your glog is now published and you can give out the web address:

3. Student Accounts:

- a. Now available in the Teacher Light version
- b. Import students through a simple spreadsheet that you fill out to control their screen name and password