Communicating where your students live!

Total Control by the Teacher

- You decide how you want to use this tool
- You decide who gets permission to blog
- You decide who gets to comment
- You decide what they get to comment about
- You decide what the student blogs about
- You decide who gets to read the blogs

How do I use Kidblog.org?

- ▣ Reading responses
- ▣ Journals
- ▣ Homework – both in how I assign it and how the student returns it to me
- ▣ Videos
- ▣ A way for students to communicate with me and with each other
- ▣ Fun!

Inserting PDF

- ▣ Last Friday I taught the children how to convert Word documents to PDF files.
- ▣ I also taught them how to save a new document as a PDF file.

WHY?

- ▣ It's a GREAT learning tool.
- ▣ Their blog only accepts PDF files.
- ▣ We wouldn't want the little darlins' changing a document now would we?

Let's look at
