CREATE YOUR ACCOUNT

- a. Open your web browser to and go to <http://www.wikispaces.com/>. Click on the “WIKIS FOR INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS”.

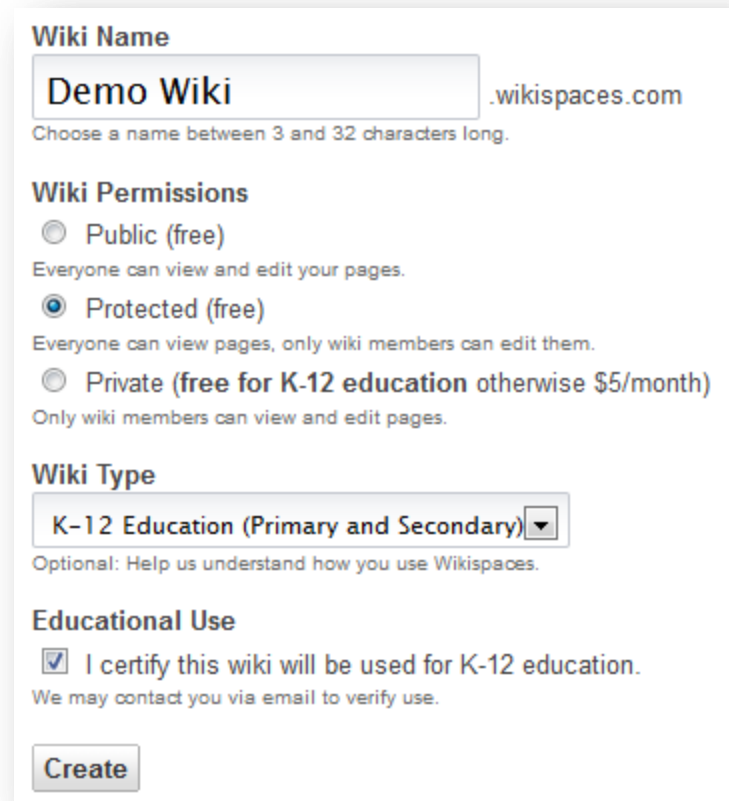

- b. In the three boxes enter the name of your wiki page, password an email address. Each email address only allows one wiki page.

- c. The next screen will take you to your account page. If you have multiple WIKI pages, this is where they will all be listed. If you are signing up for the first time, there will not be any pages listed yet. To start your first page, click on the “CREATE A NEW WIKI” on the top of the screen. (See the Arrow Below)

- d. Complete the WIKI name. Under WIKI permissions, select the PROTECTED (FREE) tab. This will allow you to share the WIKI but you must accept their membership in order to become an editor of the page.

The image shows a 'Create Wiki' form on the Wikispaces website. It is divided into several sections: 'Wiki Name', 'Wiki Permissions', 'Wiki Type', and 'Educational Use'. The 'Wiki Name' section has a text box containing 'Demo Wiki' and a '.wikispaces.com' domain. Below it is a note: 'Choose a name between 3 and 32 characters long.' The 'Wiki Permissions' section has three radio button options: 'Public (free)' (unselected), 'Protected (free)' (selected), and 'Private (free for K-12 education otherwise $5/month)' (unselected). Each option has a brief description of its permissions. The 'Wiki Type' section has a dropdown menu currently showing 'K-12 Education (Primary and Secondary)'. Below it is a note: 'Optional: Help us understand how you use Wikispaces.' The 'Educational Use' section has a checked checkbox for 'I certify this wiki will be used for K-12 education.' and a note: 'We may contact you via email to verify use.' At the bottom is a 'Create' button.

1

Go to your wiki: _____

2

Log in:

1. Go to the upper right-hand corner of the page and click Sign In.
2. Enter your username and password.
3. Click Sign In.

3

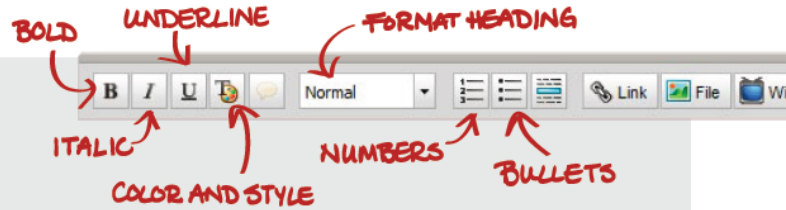

Create a new page:

1. Click the New Page link at the top of the actions menu.
2. Type your name (or group name) into the Page Name field.
3. Click the Create button.

4

Learn the text tools.

1. Type your name (or group name) at the top of the page.
On the next line, write, "My favorites:" then list your favorite color, animal, city, and food — each on its own line.
2. Move your cursor back to the top line. Use the drop-down list in the editor toolbar to format this as Heading 1.
3. Highlight the four lines with your favorite color, animal, city, and food. Use the Bullets button on the editor toolbar to turn them into a bulleted list.
4. Highlight your favorite color. With the Color and Style button in the editor toolbar, change the background color to your favorite color.
5. Highlight your favorite animal. Using the button on the editor tool bar, set it in Bold.
6. Highlight your favorite city. Using the button on the editor toolbar, set it in Italic.
7. Highlight your favorite food. Using the button on the editor toolbar, give it an Underline.

5

Add links.

On a new line, type "Now I will link to home, new, and Wikispaces." If your new line still has a bullet, leave the cursor on the line then click the Bullets icon in the toolbar to turn the bulleted list off.

Link to the home page.

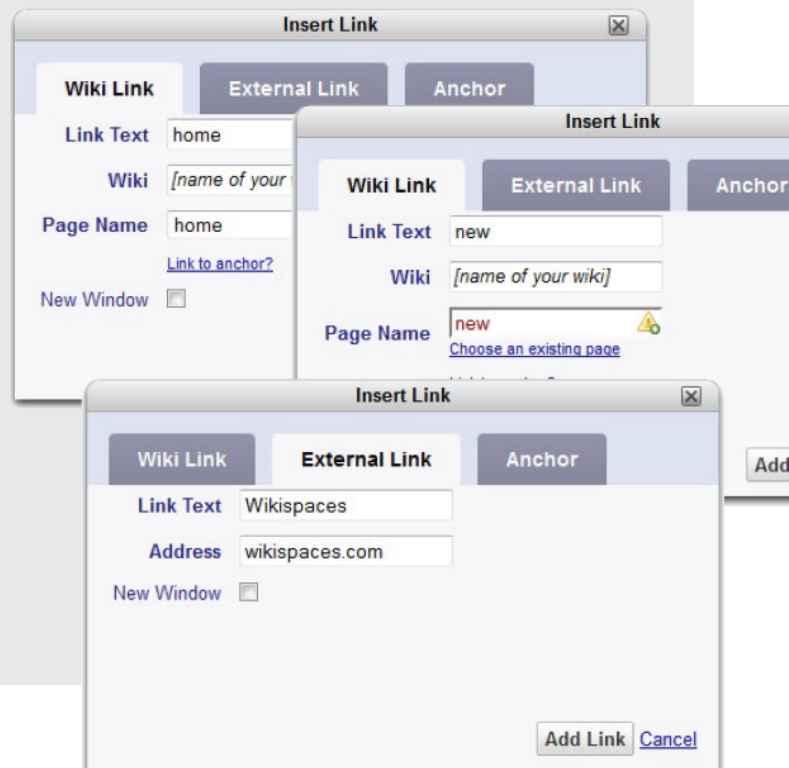

1. Highlight the word "home" and click the Link icon in the toolbar.
2. Click Add link.

Create a new page with a link.

1. Highlight the word "new" and click the Link icon in the toolbar.
2. The alert in the Page Name field lets you know that this page doesn't exist yet. Once you've saved the page, this link will be red instead of the usual blue. To create the page called "new," follow that red link and start editing.
3. Click Add link.

Link to a page outside the wiki.

1. Highlight the word "Wikispaces" and click the Link icon in the toolbar.
2. Switch to the External Link tab.
3. Type "wikispaces.com" into the Address field.
4. Click Add link.

6 Add an image.

1. Go to a new line and click the File icon.
2. Locate the file _____ on the list, or type it into the search field.
3. Click the file name.
4. Click on the image so that the image options popup bar appears.
5. Change the image size with the - and + buttons.
6. Move the image to the center of the line with the center align icon.

7 Add a file.

1. Go to a new line and click the File icon.
2. Locate the file _____ on the list, or type it into the search field.
3. Click the file name.

8 Add a video.

Find the code.

1. Open a new tab or browser window.
2. In the new tab or window, go to the home page of your wiki.
3. On the home page of the wiki, click the link for "Training camp video."
4. Look for a link or button that says "Share," "Embed," "Post to your blog," or something similar. Follow it to the embed code. It should look sort of like this:

```
<iframe width="425" height="349" src="http://www.youtube.com/embed/-dnL00TdmLY" frameborder="0" allowfullscreen></iframe>
```

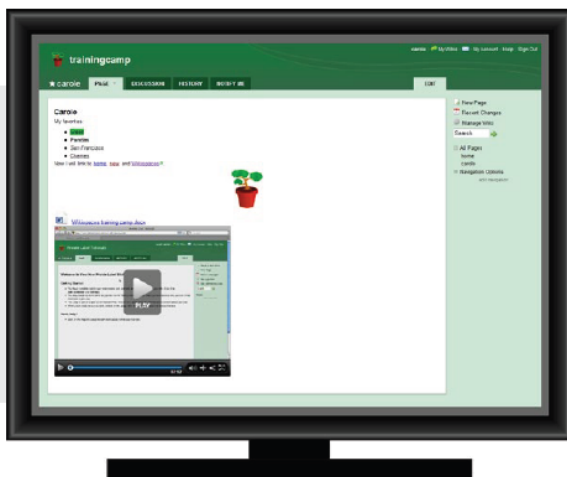

5. Copy the code.

Embed the video.

1. Go back to your original tab or browser window, where you are still editing the wiki page.
2. Start a new line and click the Widget button in the editor toolbar.
3. Find and click Video in the menu.
4. If your video came from one of the listed services, click that button. Otherwise, click the Other link.
5. Paste your copied code into the box.
6. Click Save.

9 Preview and save the page.

1. On the editor toolbar, click the Preview button.
2. Review the page and make sure that the formatting is correct.
3. Click Save.

CONGRATULATIONS
...you're a wiki expert!
