29	Exceptional...that is how I describe the technology department in WDMCS. My husband who works in business is very jealous of the quality of service we receive in the district. Brian and Jackie answer my questions almost immediately after I contact them (when it is not a building issue and I have gone to my ITAC person). The laptop roll-outs could not have gone smoother. No one does work instructions like Jackie and the way she leads PD is amazing! I enjoy the updates Brian sends out. It keeps me informed and sometimes makes me chuckle.	May 22, 2014 3:35 PM

Q11. What suggestions do you have for improving district technology services?

1	Find fastest and lest tedious steps when ordering via Printgroove. Collate should be checked by default. Thanks for reading this!	Jun 3, 2014 1:55 PM
2	I know that it really isn't you, but when planning instruction around reading time that involves listening to reading on the computer and the internet is slow or not working, it throws a kink into my schedule. For example, instead of working with reading groups, I am trying to problem solve a fix for a group of first graders that are freaking out because their computer in not working. Also, when we are in the computer lab, some kids have screens that look like mine and others look very different ie missing icons. When trying to teach something in the computer lab, it is then very difficult because everyone's screen looks a little different. Lastly, I spent a great deal of time logging on to every student's account and placing bookmarks for them so that we had easy access. The next time we went to the computer lab, their favorite's bar was gone. All of these are simple fixes I'm sure but when I asked our tech person at the school about it, she said that it was a technology issue with the computers.	May 30, 2014 8:52 PM
3	I am not good with print groove. i would like to keep having copy budgets here at school as well as be able to send print jobs by paper. Thanks.	May 29, 2014 3:30 PM
4	Keep on, keeping on. Know that when we are stressed that tech does not work, it is not a reflection of you all, because I know you are doing your best with the resources you have.	May 29, 2014 1:30 PM
5	I think you all are doing a great job. I just wish we had more technology available in the classroom. Examples: Mimios or Smartboards	May 28, 2014 2:37 PM
6	one-on-one with laptops to maintain 21st century skills. Also, access to ipads for students with learning disabilities. The fact that the Internet isn't consistently working -- probably not within your control.	May 27, 2014 9:21 PM
7	more technology classes for support staff (how to get the most out of different software/going beyond the basics, i.e. advanced excel, photoshop, etc.)	May 27, 2014 8:36 AM
8	Is there a way that we could get occasional workshops or PD from the tech department about how to best maintain the technology we have? For instance, I need a refresher on how to keep up with updates and maintenance on my laptop. My iPad apps and updates (or lack thereof) are out of control. I need a tech organizer to give me ideas of how to sort through it all and help me know if I'm doing anything really dumb.	May 25, 2014 10:51 PM
9	Now that we all have four iPads and we have had three for awhile, it seems like I use them less than I did to begin with. Possibly our time constraints in our bldg. (Sina) and the Benchmark Literacy use with fidelity. Less time for being creative and incorporating technology. Might use more classes to train or show how to use them.	May 23, 2014 2:20 PM
10	None	May 23, 2014 10:54 AM
11	more consistent internet service; 1 to 1 computers for students so teachers can use more technology, not fight over trying to get into labs or use a laptop cart	May 23, 2014 10:17 AM wide range of needs in the district. Being a late-bloomer in the world of technology, I appreciate the individual support from members of the staff when I need help. Again, thank you for your professional services.

13	More access to laptops for 4th, 5th, 6th grade students, especially in larger buildings. More time for media specialists who teach many technology skills and applications to the students	May 22, 2014 9:49 PM
14	more explanation of service calls in non-technical terms- or standard technology words that are widely used.	May 22, 2014 8:31 PM
15	I would like to see better internet service as I'm sure the tech team would too!	May 22, 2014 7:22 PM
16	I am worried when our MC instructor (Kathy Talbot) retires, we will not be helped with our technology concerns and questions.	May 22, 2014 5:30 PM
17	Have Jackie do our training instead of bringing in outside consultants. She knows her stuff, is less expensive, and does a a better job than outside consultants.	May 22, 2014 4:33 PM
18	Consistent internet access!!! Consistent IC access!!!	May 22, 2014 3:36 PM
19	Make sure to create a work environment where this team feels valued and appreciated because retaining them is good for the district.	May 22, 2014 3:35 PM
20	Perhaps a better internet service provider, with all the problems we have had this year.	May 22, 2014 3:32 PM
21	none- you guys are doing great	May 22, 2014 3:28 PM
22	Access for technology at larger buildings. Not having consistent or reliable access to enough technology such as laptops and computer labs on a daily basis seem to be a real roadblock for teachers who try to do innovative and useful learning that involves technology.	May 22, 2014 3:01 PM
23	I am frustrated with internet outages. I know the team is working on it. While we may not have a 1 to 1 program for students, we should have an ample number of devices for student check out. may have their own. many could use a rental or check out system	May 22, 2014 3:00 PM
24	Keep doing the same!! THANK YOU!	May 22, 2014 2:55 PM
25	More Ipads	May 22, 2014 2:20 PM

27	Keep up the great work! Thank you for your tireless efforts.	May 22, 2014 2:08 PM
28	Most important is student access to technology. One-to-one devices is a must. Not ipads, something with more capabilities like a chrome book. Teachers then need extensive prof development on how to use technology. I feel like technology usage has been put on a back-burner by the district. Our students are behind!! Also, all the spam in the email is quite annoying.	May 22, 2014 1:40 PM

Q11. What suggestions do you have for improving district technology services?

29	Even more tech PD days would be great. That was one of the most valuable PD days I've ever experienced.	May 22, 2014 1:28 PM
30	I think moving towards 1-to-1 laptops would be useful, but I know that's largely out of your control. Maybe making the S and H drives more visible to students on the website? My kids get "lost" quite a bit when they try to access it to home. If it was more "in their face," it would help.	May 22, 2014 1:23 PM
31	Continue on the path of keeping things updated and in working order in light of the budget issues. Google Drive is nice but keep the S drive available, too. Thanks:)	May 22, 2014 1:22 PM
32	At no fault to you all, at time the ball gets dropped when a teacher submits a request to their designated in building person. If there was a way to work around this to make it easier for teachers to communicate needs to you, that would be appreciated.	May 22, 2014 1:12 PM
33	Depending on the time of the year it can be extremely difficult to sign-up for labs and/or laptop carts to use at Stilwell and at Valley. If you need to make adjustments to lessons at the last minute sometimes you can't. Either we need to continue to add laptop carts and labs, especially at Valley, or we need to move to more one on one options.	May 22, 2014 1:10 PM
34	I personally still found DE streaming to be more applicable and have more resources than Safari, so I wish we had that back...but I understand the reasoning.	May 22, 2014 1:06 PM

36	You are doing great. I just need more time in my day to learn about how the technology works and how it can help my kids.	May 22, 2014 1:05 PM
37	I do wish that I had more access to using different types of technology and better working technology for my classroom. I am not able to use the computers for example because it takes entirely too long for them to start.	May 22, 2014 1:04 PM
